Dear Niños donor,

We are delighted to announce that Jolanda van den Berg has received the honor that we think she deserved for years. On 26 April 2013 she received a Dutch Royal Award in Cusco. Our special appreciation goes to all the donors, without whom Jolanda could never have done her valuable work.

Also in this newsflash some special developments within the youth project.

Happy reading and all the best from the Netherlands and Cusco,
The Niños team (May 2013)

Niños and the Chocolate Factory

Jolanda has been awarded with a Royal distinction!

Niños has long been known for its home made fresh bread, delicious cakes and chocolates that are being sold in the Niños Hotels. Some of the boys of Jolanda have been baking breads for many years. Children often show up at the front door to receive some sweets and bread to take home. The bakery is extremely valuable ... and therefore we decided that it should be part of the recently launched youth project. Some of our youngsters started to work a few hours each day in the bakery to prepare the chocolates, cookies and cakes. They are so excited about their new work and skills, that they show up every morning at the door exactly on time. This punctuality on their age is very uncommon.. It's fantastic to see how motivated they are!

"De ti.. para mi" - our new Niños shop!

On April 26th we had a double celebration in Cusco: on the birthday party of Jolanda, she has been awarded with a Royal distinction! Jolanda received this award by the Dutch consul, mr. van Immerzeel, in Cusco. Many of us felt that Jolanda deserved this honor for years already, but for her this news was a big surprise: "... I must tell you that it is indeed a very special feeling, which I cannot quite place yet. But I notice how important it is for the people here and therefore it is special to me.." The kids were very excited, as well as the employees, whom many have been working for Niños since the beginning. There were a lot of cheers and also some tears of happiness. After the decoration Niños started a big celebration and Jolanda received about 1000 kisses and hugs. The Niños team is very proud and we thank and congratulate everyone who has contributed to the Niños project. A special appreciation goes out to the donors, without whom Jolanda could never have done her valuable work. As Jolanda herself puts this into words: "An incredible big kiss to all and congratulations because this honor is of course not only for me, but also for all of you and everyone here."

Until now our delicacies were sold only in our Hotel Café or in our little shop at the reception. Early April a small shop in one of our Hotel streets turned out to be sold, which seemed an ideal place to start a Niños Delicacy shop and present our products to a wider audience. We decided to step into this opportunity and transformed the shop in a very short period of time into a beautiful patisserie named 'De ti.. Para mi' ('From you.. to me'). The shop is also part of the youth project, where the youngsters learn the tricks of the sales profession. According to many friends, our greatest luck was that our first customer turned out to be a man. The common superstition is that if the first client is a male, the women naturally follow and buy all other products of the store. Well, that turned out to be true.. Most of our products were sold in only one day! Of course all the income goes directly to the Niños Foundation and our children and youngsters. We already dream about a small store line in Cusco ..
